

MDS ABSTRACT SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

Medical Dermatology Society encourages submission of original studies or observations that would be of interest to medical dermatologists. A select few abstracts will be selected for oral presentation at the Annual Meeting of the Medical Dermatology Society, which is held in conjunction with the AAD Annual Meeting. Abstracts not selected for oral presentation will be considered, but not guaranteed, for an online presentation. The remainder of abstract submissions will not be accepted.

ABSTRACT CATEGORIES AND DESCRIPTIONS

CLINICAL RESEARCH

- Addresses scientific or clinical questions, with original data
- This category will be given preference at the time of selection
- Research that is complete at the time of submission will be given priority over interim analyses.

CLINICAL CASES

- With advanced teaching points that focus on a complex case and highlight significant learning points for an advanced audience of medical dermatologists
- This category will be considered with lower priority than the Clinical Research abstract submissions.

AUTHORS, PLEASE REVIEW ALL ABSTRACT GUIDELINES NOTED IN ADVANCE OF SUBMISSION

- Abstracts must be submitted through the MDS ABSTRACT SUBMISSION SITE to be considered
- Data published elsewhere, either online or in print by the abstract submission deadline will not be considered
- Data being submitted or presented at another session at the AAD Annual Meeting, within the same calendar year, will not be considered
- Interim analysis of a prospective clinical trial will be considered for the Clinical Research category only if it is performed as planned in the original protocol and is statistically valid
- Presentation at the MDS Annual Meeting must be consistent with what is described in the abstract
- All data collection and analysis must be completed by the time of presentation
- All research and studies that involve human and animal subjects reported in submitted abstracts must comply with the guiding principles for experimental procedures found in the Declaration of Helsinki of the World Medical Association
- Data of previously presented clinical trials may be submitted only if significant new information can be shown
- The abstract title, authorship, and content of the presentation at the MDS Annual Meeting must match that of the submitted abstract
- If selected, the submitting author will remain the contact and will be listed as the presenter in the printed program for the MDS Annual Meeting
- If an abstract is selected for an ORAL presentation, the submitting author MUST complete a disclosure for CME accreditation
- If an abstract is selected for an ORAL presentation, the submitting author will need to provide a draft of their presentation for review by the MDS Education and Programs Committee Chairs in advance of the MDS Annual Meeting: No later than Friday, March 3, 2023
